ACT I

MUSICAL #1 – OVERTURE

SCENE 1

(Train station at Bright River, Prince Edward Island, Canada, a small town on a peninsula stretching into the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Late spring afternoon in the early 1900s. MATTHEW CUTHBERT, a simple, shy man, well into his 60s, turns the corner and is surprised to see a girl, nearly 13 years old and dressed in a very short, very tight, ugly dress of yellowish grey wincey. She has a faded brown sailor hat over two long braids of very thick, very red hair. She is full of spirit and vivacity. A shabby, old-fashioned carpet bag is tucked under her arm. This is ANNE SHIRLEY, soon to be Anne of Green Gables. Matthew stares awkwardly at the girl for a few moments as though he is dumbstruck.)

ANNE: (One hand grasps the handle of her carpet bag, the other she holds out to MATTHEW.)

Are you Mr. Matthew Cuthbert?

MATTHEW: Well now ...

ANNE: Of Green Gables?

MATTHEW: I suppose I am.

ANNE: Anne Shirley. The matron said I should wait at the station until you arrived.

MATTHEW: You're from the orphanage?

ANNE: I was this morning, but today ... today I am Anne of Green Gables. Isn't the world full of wonderful surprises?

MATTHEW: I reckon it is.

ANNE: I was beginning to be afraid you weren't coming and I had made up my mind I would go down the track and climb into that big cherry tree at the bend and stay all night. Wouldn't it be lovely to sleep in a wild cherry tree all white with bloom in the moonshine?

MATTHEW: The matron didn't send anyone else?

ANNE: I am sure she wanted to. The orphanage is spilling over with children. Oh, Mr. Cuthbert, I feel as though I just stepped into a fairy tale!

MATTHEW: (At a loss as to what to do, HE smiles, takes HER hand.) The horse is over in the yard. Give me your bag.

ANNE: Oh! I can carry it. I've got all my worldly goods in it but it isn't heavy. And if it isn't carried a certain way the handle pulls out.

(MATTHEW awkwardly leads her to the "buggy.")

ANNE: Do you know how often I have dreamed of this moment - the moment I would actually belong to someone? I've never belonged to anyone before - not really. Oh, but I have spent hours imagining what it would be like. Do you ever imagine things that could only come true in a fairy tale, Mr. Cuthbert?

MUSICAL #2 - A BREATH OF AIR!

MATTHEW: Well now, I can't say as I have.

ANNE: I don't suppose you ever were an orphan, so you can't possibly understand what it is like. It's worse than anything. Can you only think of what an immensely important day it was for me when Mrs. Spencer said I was wanted by a Matthew Cuthbert and his sister Marilla? For the first time in my life, I am utterly, absolutely, contented.

(MATTHEW helps her into the Buggy.)

ANNE:

TAKE A BREATH OF AIR!
I CAN FEEL TOMORROW
IT'S CALLING ME
WAITING THERE!

TAKE A BREATH OF AIR!
I CAN TASTE THE FUTURE
IF I ONLY DARE!
COULD IT BE A FAIRY TALE
BECKONS NOW FOR ME?
LOOK AT ME, I'M ON THE TRAIL
OF HAPP'LY EVER AFTERING!

ANNE: Oh, Mr. Cuthbert ... those trees they look like a bride all in white with a lovely misty veil! I've never seen a bride, but I can imagine what she would look like. I don't ever expect to be a bride myself. I'm so homely nobody will ever want to marry me - unless it might be a foreign missionary. I suppose a foreign missionary mightn't be very particular. But I do hope that some day I shall have a white dress and it will have puffed sleeves. Puffed sleeves are my highest ideal of earthly bliss. I just love pretty clothes. And I've never had a pretty dress in my life - but of course it's all the more to look forward to, isn't it?

TAKE A BREATH OF AIR!
CAN YOU SMELL THE COLUMBINE?
ALL OF MY DREAMS ARE THERE
TAKE A BREATH OF AIR!
CAN YOU JUST IMAGINE
A PLACE FREE FROM CARE?
I CAN FEEL IT CALLING ME
JUST BEYOND THAT BEND
IF I LOOK HARD I CAN SEE
A HEARTH, A HOME, A FIRE, A FRIEND

ANNE: Just now I feel pretty nearly perfectly happy. I can't feel exactly perfectly happy because- well, what color would you call this? (She pulls at a braid of her hair.)
