

Barabbas, The Acquitted

Selected from the collection
“SEVEN STEPS to the CROSS”

By Roy Wiegand

Cast: 1 m

Length: 2 pages of dialogue (1235 words)

Performance time: About 8 minutes

The Story

Barabas is in a dungeon waiting to be taken off any moment to die on the cross. But not with Jesus, for Jesus was crucified many years ago. Since then Barabas has come to know Him through the teachings of His disciples and now realizes that He died that day that others might be saved. Now, Barabas says, the burden is a much lighter one, for “I now know your Master not only died for you, but for me also. And now I go to my death, Barabbas, The Acquitted.”
