God's Great Gift

GOD'S GREAT GIFT

This service was first performed at the author's church, Christ Lutheran Church, Menomonie, WI, on Dec. 17, 1989.

Slides, music, and narration blend together to form this beautiful Christmas program that you can make uniquely yours.

God's Great Gift is seen through three program parts, the Creation story, the Christmas story, and your own story. By adding your own slides, both collected from members of your congregation and created with your children as the actors, you personalize the program to make it more meaningful. Sunday school classes can even add their own statement of thanksgiving. Adults and children alike can celebrate together in this service of worship because much of the production is done ahead of time, long before the "Christmas rush" begins.

God's Great Gift is well suited for a large or small congregation, since children can wear costumes and be photographed in one or more different roles. All children should be included in the slides and in the music. The program concludes with a congregational response of thankfulness.

Consult Production Notes at end of playbook for complete details including a list of music and slides.

CHILDREN: We give thanks to God for His great gifts. (SCREEN off and LIGHTS on.)

NARRATOR: But Adam and Eve disobeyed God, and were sent out of the garden. Sin came into the world. But God still loved His people and He promised them yet another gift ... the gift of his Son. The Bible tells about this promise in the book of Isaiah: "For to us a child is born, to us a Son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and the Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:6) And so God's people waited for their Savior.

CHILD ANNOUNCER: (One CHILD comes forward to read.) We would like to tell you what happened next. In our Sunday School classes, we have all been learning the story of how God sent us the gift of his son Jesus at Christmas time. Some of us acted out the story on film, some of us wrote things we will read, and all of us learned songs which we will sing for you. Here is our story. (SCREEN on and LIGHTS off.)
