

I Watch My Son at a Distance

*Selected from the collection
"The Mommy Monologues"*

By Sharon Dunn

Cast: 1 w

Length: 2 pages of dialogue (640 words)

Performance time: About 3 minutes

The Story

A mother confides her fears over her son, who is challenged in some way. Will he find friends? Will he make it through school? All parents want their child to grow up to be someone special. She prays she will see her son as God intended him to be and not try to make him into what she thinks he should be.
