CAST: 2 Clowns.

PROPS: A couple of infant nasal aspirators, (to hold water), or any sort of a bulb or balloon that will hold the water and give the desired results. Lots of tissue, an extremely long handkerchief and a hand buzzer. Clown 1's costume should have large pockets to pull out and show he/she is broke.

THEME: Joy using Galatians 5:22-23 as a reference.

(AT RISE: CLOWN 1 enters crying and blowing his/her nose loudly. He/she sits down in a chair and squeezes a hidden aspirator to let loose a stream of water still crying and carrying on.)

CLOWN 2: (Enters obviously concerned with CLOWN 1.)
Hey, what's wrong?

CLOWN 1: (Turns toward CLOWN 2 and lets loose another stream of water.) Oh, nothing.

CLOWN 2: (Wiping SELF dry.) Nothing? Well, you sure are crying a lot about nothing!

CLOWN 1: I'm not really crying. Clowns aren't supposed to cry. I'm just ... well ... I'm leaking! (At that, lets out another stream of water toward CLOWN 2.)

CLOWN 2: (Drying off again.) Well, I would certainly like to get that leak fixed. How can I help you?

CLOWN 1: I could use some more tissue, I seem to have used all of mine up. (Blows nose again.)

CLOWN 2: Here, use my handkerchief. (Pulls out a handkerchief from HIS/HER pocket.)

CLOWN 1: (HE/SHE pulls on the handkerchief. It is a very long handkerchief that does not seem to end. Through the rest of the skit have CLOWN 1 periodically pulling more of this handkerchief out of CLOWN 2's pocket.) Gee, thanks. (Blows nose in handkerchief.)

CLOWN 2: Now, why don't you tell me what seems to have caused you to spring a leak.

CLOWN 1: I really don't want to talk about it. You know, clowns are supposed to be happy. And on top of that I was reading my Bible this morning and in Galatians, the scripture says joy is one of the fruits of the Spirit. I'm supposed to be a joyful, Christian clown and just look at me. (Blows nose loudly and shoots another stream of water at CLOWN 2.)

CLOWN 2: If you are sad about something, you can't just ignore it because you think you have to be happy.

CLOWN 1: Are you saying it's OK to be sad sometimes?

CLOWN 2: Sure. Everyone gets sad sometimes.

CLOWN 1: Even clowns?

CLOWN 2: Even clowns.

CLOWN 1: How about these kids? Do you think they ever get sad, sometimes?

CLOWN 2: I'm sure they do. Everyone gets sad sometimes.

CLOWN 1: (Changing subject and acting like HE/SHE feels better.) Oh, hey, that's weird.

CLOWN 2: What's weird?

CLOWN 1: It seems just talking to you about being sad seems to be making me feel better.

CLOWN 2: Well, I'm not surprised.

CLOWN 1: You're not surprised at what?

CLOWN 2: I'm not surprised at you.

CLOWN 1: Was I supposed to bring a surprise for you?
(Bursts into tears and shooting water again.) I'm so sorry, I forgot all about a surprise!

CLOWN 2: No! I didn't mean you were supposed to bring a surprise for me. I meant, that I'm not surprised that you feel better after talking to someone.

CLOWN 1: Why didn't you just say so!

CLOWN 2: Let's just start over. What is making you so sad?

CLOWN 1: I don't have any friends.

CLOWN 2: That's not true. You have lots of friends.

CLOWN 1: Well ... then ... I'm sick.

CLOWN 2: You look fine to me.

CLOWN 1: Well ... then ... I'm broke. (Pulls out large empty pockets.)

CLOWN 2: You know, I get the feeling you are just making up excuses for why you are sad.
