*Selected from the collection
“The Mommy Monologues”*

By Sharon Dunn

Cast: 1 w

Length: 2 pages of dialogue (582 words)

Performance time: About 3 minutes

The Story

A mother recalls a recent dinner at a restaurant with her husband where their three children were amazingly well behaved, but a woman at a neighboring table wasn't so lucky with her little one. Rather than feel superior, she and her husband empathize and offer encouragement. She wants men and women alike to be members of the special Mommy Club, to support each other through the treacherous – and sometimes embarrassing! – times of parenthood.
